

Year 1 – Toys – Knowledge Organiser

Subject Specific Vocabulary			Exciting Books
generations	Groups of people who were born around the same time.		<h3>Sticky Knowledge about Toys</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Toys have developed since the time of our Grandparents, due to advances in technology.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Popular toys from the Victorian era included: skipping ropes, spinning tops, dolls and teddy bears.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Toys are made out of different materials to best suit their use.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Some of the most popular toys have been created in different countries such as the Rubik's cube from Hungary and LEGO from Denmark</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> The teddy bear was first produced in 1902</li> </ul> past	The time that has gone by.	<h3>Important</h3> Video games can be seen as both a good and bad thing. They improve hand eye coordination and problem solving skills but can mean children don't get enough exercise. The name 'Teddy Bear' originated from the story of Theodore Roosevelt present	Existing at this time; current.
future	Time that is yet to come.
compare	To note or describe the similarities or differences.
material	Anything used for building or making something else.
design	To draw plans for what you are going to make.
recycled	To use something again.
timeline	An order of events and their dates.
research	To find out information.
historical	Something to do with history. From the past.
describe	To tell or write about.			