Early Years' Christmas Trip

On Monday our nursery and reception children visited Hatton Adventure Park's 'Enchanted Christmas Kingdom'. They got to hold the guinea pigs, feed the goats and even got to see Blitzen who was having some well deserved rest in the Reindeer Retreat before the big day. Of course the best was yet to come, a chance to meet the man himself, Father Christmas!

Father Christmas used his special book to find out who was on the naughty or nice list and thankfully all of the children made the nice list! They were given a golden key to unlock the door to Father Christmas's very own secret toy shop where they got to choose their very own present.

After the excitement of visiting Father Christmas and his toy shop the children then sat to write him a letter whilst enjoying some chocolate, reflecting on the day's events and talking about their favourite part. It was a wonderfully magical day and the children enjoyed every minute of it.

Online Safety - tip of the week!

Online safety hero says...

If you have never met an online friend, how do you know they are who they say they are?

Always tell a trusted adult if you are not sure.

Excellent Work

Inside her house, a little girl was sent to give her grandma a good basket because she was indisposed to the city. At 12 pm. She set out for her grandma's house. She had to resist the urge to eat the mouth-watering mussels as well as the aromatic cupcake. Suddenly she heard a rustle in a bramble bush beside her... then it happened again but this time on the other side. Hello, is anyone there? she called out terrified of what would be in the bushes beside her. All of a sudden a wolf jumped out. He snarled and growled. Surprised, the girl fell over. "Little Red Riding Hood... my old friend." Growled the wolf. "How did you know my name?" she asked. "I'm the big bad wolf who ate your grandma. I stuffed her with - smells - onions," replied the wolf in his lowest growl with a hiss. "Hey, that was the lumberjack. Not me!" Little Red Riding Hood stated with attitude. "Well, I got stuffed with onions, and they smell!" replied the wolf, stamping his foot, as he did this the ground shook.

On Wednesday Chaplains Pantos came into school to deliver a performance of 'Jack and the Beanstalk' it was absolutely fantastic and everyone really enjoyed it.

This week's excellent work comes from Logan R in Year 5.

Year 2 - Journey to the Stable

Yesterday Year 2 went on a very special 'Journey to the Stable'. They met a shepherd who had lost his sheep, a very grumpy inn keeper who had no room at his inn and finally found someone very special, baby Jesus. It was a great way to prepare for Christmas, with children reflecting on the true meaning of the season.

The children's thoughts...

"I was excited because I saw all of the animals." Halina

"I liked it because we got to see baby Jesus." William

"It was brilliant because we got to see baby Jesus with his mother." Bella

Second Sunday of Advent

God of love, help us always to try to do the right thing, even when we find it hard, so that we are ready when Jesus comes.

We are still in the special time of Advent when we get ready for the coming of Jesus. This is a time for us to look at our lives and try to change them for the better, so that we are ready for Jesus

In this Sunday's gospel, we hear a story about John the Baptist, our school patron saint. John told everybody that Jesus was coming and that they needed to get ready.

John warned those who came to him to be baptised that they needed to say sorry for the things that they have done wrong and to change their lives for the better; saying this would help them to be ready for Jesus.

When we say sorry, it means that we will try to do better next time. If we change our lives for the better and try to do the right things, we can help to make the world a happier place for other people too.

What will you do for others so that you are ready when Jesus comes?

God of life, we give thanks for all those people who are kind to us. Help us to be the best people that we can be as we wait for the coming of your Son Jesus.

Amen.

Have a lovely weekend.
